

Hospitality Training Association Inc.

media release

July 2009

Aviation Partnership

Imagine a career in the exciting world of aviation, one of the cornerstones of the hospitality and tourism industries.

A new partnership between the leader of aviation training in Australia and the Hospitality Training Association Inc. (HTA) has made possible an exciting new program that combines the Diploma of Hospitality Management and Certificate II in Aviation Flight Operations (Cabin Crew).

This is the ideal course for students wanting a career in the aviation industry, with students spending time at both HTA and Aviation Australia to complete the course.

With the strong industry credentials of Aviation Australia combined with the reputation of HTA's Diploma's and Certificate's throughout the world, we are confident that our graduates will be highly sought after by the aviation industry.

ENDS

For further information contact Mr Phillip Charlton, CEO on 3872 4200.